essentia

Accomplishment and achievement radiate from Essentia - Artopex's premier executive office furniture collection. The warmth of real wood, the rich texture of "Soft-Touch" leather, the splendor of lacquered surfaces and the prestige of glass unite in the statement of your success.

The melding of basic forms and prestigious materials makes numerous configurations and styles possible - all designed to create a refined, contemporary executive office environment.

Concept: Suzanne Léger, Artopex.

Surfaces supported by storage units, gables or legs

With the elegance of its fine lines and thin surfaces that seemingly float above their solid storage base, Essentia creates a distinctive geometry of space based on the graceful union of surfaces.

The Essentia collection offers storage solutions in various heights allowing for innumerable configurations adapted to the needs of the modern office. A Zen-inspired work wall can be attached to the credenza or wall creating practical aesthetic detailing.

Attesting to the collection's attention to fine details, Essentia storage units can be fitted with the electronic lock, Noki – in a new sleeker design unique to the collection and exclusive to Artopex.

Essentia harmoniously blends luxurious materials. Combined with the warmth of the wood, the partial or total covering of surfaces and storage fronts in "Soft-Touch" leather and glass propel the look of the executive office to the next level. In half or full form, the modesty is a stylish and functional addition.

Offered in a variety of colors embellished with top stitching, elements covered with "Soft-Touch" leather are as durable and scratch-resistant as they are comfortable. This option brings a whole new sophistication to the office environment.

"Alto" gable

With the choice of glass, "Soft-Touch" leather or white lacquered surfaces, the Essentia office – and even the simple bistro table – is transformed into a work of art. The Elliptical work surface where "Soft-Touch" and lacquer come together, supported by the "disk" based legs; these aesthetic elements converge to exhibit the utmost of contemporary design.

Offering numerous possibilities in the use of components, from the large open office to a more compact version, Essentia generates the pleasure of inhabiting a universe of one's own – reflecting one's own image.

The experience and skill of Artopex's craftspeople are revealed in the remarkable attention to detail: surfaces with bidirectional wood grain, artful combinations of materials, finishing touches on the contours, hutch integrated accessory rail, doors and drawers with dampers, sliding doors, high quality grommets ... Essentia's construction details will be valued by the discerning client looking for luxurious extras.

The ingenious wood gable designs – Alto and Duo – offer a multitude of simple wire management solutions in a choice of shapes and colors.

Whether you seek its functional side, inspiring shapes, luxurious textures or the high quality it exudes, Essentia will always impress – reflecting your image of success with its unique lines and rich, warm materials.
