Ultramodern aesthetics. Lines of absolute purity. Surfaces and supports perfectly designed to suit your needs and tastes. Work walls that merge elegance with functionality. Meeting spaces that reveal your organization's stature.

Artopex has re-envisioned conference room furniture. In the beginning, there were tables and credenzas; now, there is Essentia.

Amber Teak & lacquer

Amber Teak & lacquer

Bidirectional wood grain on surfaces & bases

Glass table top with multi-outlet module

Removable panel on base allows for efficient cable management

Central accent with integrated multi-outlet module

New shapes, offered in various dimensions

Horizontal and vertical lines combine harmoniously through bidirectional wood grain detailing on the work surfaces and Duo gables.

The wide range of metal and wood supports, and the comprehensive selection of electrical modules meet the needs — both aesthetic and practical — of contemporary conference rooms where technology is essential and ubiquitous.

With the precision and attention to design details that you expect from Artopex, even the central table accent coordinates with the finish on the storage unit fronts and doors.

Whether for formal presentations or impromptu confabs, group meetings or private consultations, official briefings or one-on-one discussions, the Essentia collection is suited to any space, any order of business.

From comfortable and durable blotters to ingenious Noki electronic locks: a multitude of options lets you adapt these pieces to your exact needs. Good decisions are made around Essentia conference tables.

Choco Zebra & Brown Soft-Touch

Who says that meetings have to be austere and monotonous? Certainly not Artopex. Blending luxurious and contemporary materials, Essentia is always of the essence, giving your conference room new focus, renewed energy.

The warmth of wood, the rich texture of Soft-Touch leather, the luster of glass accents, refined metal pulls, discreet electrical access — Artopex conference collections are the picture of refinement.
