

An unforgettable masterpiece, premier traditional offering defines unsurpassed workmanship. The materials are impeccable. The look is refined and distinctive.

Stately details add polish and prestige to any executive office setting. Two pull options, each offered in antique or burnished brass, lend an elegant aesthetic to an already impressive offering.

Executive presence with working performance is revealed through comprehensible features including a concealed writing shelf and center drawer with hardwood pencil tray for the desk, and an optional keyboard tray with front flip drawer for the credenza. Modular upper and lower storage units offer endless possibilities for large work areas.

Private office, administrative, meeting, or conferencing, this all inclusive series presents complementary components for a diverse range of office environments.

Versatility in details are evident with numerous molding options, hardware selections, and base styles. Choose organic shapes or linear lines, or create a personalized combination to suit any work environment.
